Internship Offered

MakoLab is a digital project house, a team of more than three hundred experts accomplishing projects in the digital transformation field. In line with our motto, "User-inspired solutions", we combine engineering skills and creativity to produce intuitive IT tools for businesses and end users.

We specialize in building custom-designed solutions that intelligently bring brands and consumers together and forge a seamless connection between the real and virtual worlds. In this era of the experience economy, we equip our clients with tailor-made solutions and digital platforms, enabling them to build relationships with their customers, grow their businesses and develop their market value. Deploying global solutions adapted to the requirements of local markets is another of our areas of expertise.

We are proud to be a long-term provider of digital solutions to numerous market leaders, including Renault-Nissan, Toyota Motor Europe and many others. Internship experience: Web design (Java, JavaScript, React, Angular, HTML, .Net, PHP), UX and Computer Graphics, e-marketing (SEO/SEM), QA and testing.
